

The Health Care Safety Net: Finding a Medical Home in Metro Atlanta

A Medical Home offers team-based primary health care with the goal of preventing illness and maximizing health. The Health Centers and Clinics in the chart below serve as a Medical Home to the uninsured/underinsured in Metro Atlanta by offering free or low cost services.

Many uninsured adults in Georgia may now qualify for financial help to buy health insurance and pay for medical care through the new Georgia Health Insurance Marketplace. You can go to some Health Centers and Clinics to learn more and find help to apply. Help is available in locations marked with this symbol.

➔ To find a doctor or other health care provider anywhere in Georgia, call PowerLine at 1-800-300-9003.

- Community Health Centers See Georgia Association for Primary Health Care: www.gaphc.org
 Georgia residents who have financial need receive services based on their ability to pay. Some Centers have discount pharmacies and provide dental services. Also known as Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs), they accept those with Medicaid, Medicare as well as the uninsured. Citizenship is not required.
